THE MANAGER

DARRELL DEAN JOHNSON

Age: 48, Turns 49 Aug. 25; Born: August 25, 1927, Ord, Neb. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 190 lbs. Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Pinole, Calif. Married Dixie Anna Brown. Children: Dara Kaye 6/4/52, Denise Gail 9/26/54, Douglas Paul 11/30/58, Deana Ann 7/11/65.

Darrell's second year at the helm of the Red Sox turned out to be exciting and successful. He won Manager of the Year laurels as the Red Sox finished 30 games over .500 to win the Eastern Division title, swept the defending World Champion Oakland A's in three straight for the A.L. pennant, and carried the favored Cincinnati Reds into the ninth inning of the seventh game before losing the World Series.

Johnson had a seven-year career as a catcher with the St. Louis Browns, White Sox, Yankees, Orioles, Cardinals, Phillies and Reds. In 1963 he joined the Orioles as a minor league manager and directed Rochester for three years. In 1964 Rochester finished fourth but won the International League playoffs by defeating Jacksonville and Syracuse. Darrell guided Elmira to the Eastern League pennant in 1966.

He became a scout for the Yankees in 1967 and then joined Dick Williams as Red Sox pitching coach in 1968-69. In 1971 he went to Louisville as manager and led the Sox triple-A team to the pennant in 1972. Louisville moved to Pawtucket for 1973 and, after losing the pennant by one game, the Paw-Sox won the Governor's Cup playoff title and the Junior World Series championship over Tulsa of the American Association.

Johnson helped develop many of the younger Red Sox players who now form the nucleus of the major league roster. He is an avid hunter and golfer in the off-season. Darrell was part of the famous 17-player trade between the Yankees and Orioles in 1954.

Johnny is back for his second year as the Red Sox first base coach and hitting instructor. One of the all-time favorite Red Sox players as a shortstop and third baseman. He also managed Seattle for the Red Sox in 1961-62 before moving up to the parent Boston team in 1963-64.

He holds the Red Sox records for most hits by a rookie (205) and most singles in a season (172) and hit over .300 six times in his major league career. After a 10-year career with Boston, Detroit and Washington, Pesky coached under Ralph Houk in Denver in 1955 and managed in the Detroit farm system from 1956 through 1960. In the mid-1960's he was a coach for the Pirates and a manager in their system before joining the Red Sox broadcast crew in 1969. He spent six years as part of the radio and television team.

Stan won the admiration of the pitching staff with his dedication and hard work during the 1975 season. He is now in his second year as the Red Sox pitching coach after managing the Bristol Red Sox to the Eastern League regular-season championship in 1974.

He pitched in the major leagues from 1958 through 1972 with the Dodgers, Indians, Twins, Cardinals, Yankees and Red Sox and also played for Darrell Johnson in Louisville in 1972. At Bristol he helped develop some of the younger pitchers and activated himself to pitch in several games, including a seven-inning no-hitter.

DONALD WILLIAM (ZIM) ZIMMER

Age: 45; Born: January 17, 1931, Cincinnati, Ohio. Ht.: 5'9"; Wt.: 185 lbs. Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Treasure Island, Fla. Married Jean Carol Bauerle. Children: Thomas 6/30/52, Donna 3/14/54.

The Red Sox have been a hustling, aggressive base-running team and Don Zimmer is one of the reasons for this fan-pleasing style of play. He returns for his third year as Red Sox third base coach after a lengthy career as a player, coach and manager.

After 12 seasons as an infielder with the Dodgers, Cubs, Mets, Cincinnati and Washington he became a minor league manager in 1967. In 1971 he moved up to third base coach with Montreal. He started 1972 in the same capacity for San Diego and then succeeded Preston Gomez in April as manager. He managed the Padres through 1973 and joined the Red Sox after that season. He and Darrell Johnson were teammates briefly with Cincinnati.

Don was always known for his all-out performances as a player and reflects that attitude in his duties with the Red Sox. His son, Tommy, was a catcher in the St. Louis system.

PLAYER RECORDS

AASE, Donald William (Don)

PITCHER

Age: 21, Turns 22 Sept. 8; Born: September 8, 1954, Orange, Calif. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 192 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Anaheim, Calif. Signed by Scout Joe Stephenson, June 9, 1972. Single.

It's generally agreed that Don is the best righthander developed in the Red Sox farm system since Jim Lonborg won the Cy Young award in 1967. Only 21, it is hoped he can be a starter for Boston in 1976.

He has literally been "force fed" to get him to Fenway Park as soon as possible, so his won-loss figures can be overlooked. After leading the Carolina League in five categories in 1974, he was the league's unanimous choice as "Pitcher of the Year." He jumped right to triple A in 1975 but lost many heartbreaking low hit games last year in Pawtucket. Don then pitched two no-hitters in the Florida Instructional League last fall.

He was an All Star selection at every level of youth baseball, Little League, Colt League, American Legion and finally MVP at Savannah High at Anaheim in 1972, when he was the Red Sox sixth selection in the June draft.

ANDREW, Kim Darrell (Kim)

SECOND BASEMAN

Age: 22; Born: November 14, 1953, Glendale, Calif. Ht.: 5'10"; Wt.: 162 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Sepulveda, Calif. Signed by Baltimore, May 21, 1972. Single.

Last year was the first in four seasons as a professional that Kim failed to make an All Star team, but he did continue to bat .300 as he has for every team with which he has been associated. He continued to work hard on his fielding and throwing with special work in the Florida Instructional League last fall.

Before signing with the Orioles he set hitting records in Little League and Babe Ruth League baseball, was a three year MVP at James Munroe High of Sepulveda, and set four more hitting records with Valley JC that included a .470 average.

BAKER, Jack Edward (Buck)

FIRST BASEMAN

Age: 25, Turns 26 May 4; Born: May 4, 1950, Birmingham, Ala. Ht.: 6'5"; Wt.: 228 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Birmingham, Ala. Signed by Scout Milt Bolling, June 14, 1971. Single.

Jack didn't hit the long ball as consistently last year as he had previously but his 18 home runs ranked second in the International League. He finished among the top ten in RBI and still rates a strong chance to become a major leaguer when he cuts down on his strikeouts.

He was picked by the Red Sox on the 26th round of the June, 1971 draft from Auburn University where he earned a degree in business administration the following December. Although he has played first base exclusively in college and pro ball, he also was a pitcher through Little League, Legion and High School baseball.

DID YOU KNOW?

FRED LYNN reached base in 38 straight games from May 25 thru the first game of a double-header in Milwaukee July 2. In that span LYNN reached via a hit, walk or hit by pitch 70 times in 168 plate appearances for a .417 percentage. He also never went hitless more than 3 straight games (twice), the entire season.

BLACKWELL, Timothy P. (Tim)

CATCHER

Age: 23, Turns 24 Aug. 19; Born: August 19, 1952, San Diego, Calif. Ht.: 5'11"; Wt.: 185 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats: Switch; Throws: Right. Home: San Diego, Calif. Signed by Scout Ray Boone, June 14, 1970. Married Jane Alice DeBolt.

Although he saw very limited action, he did give the Red Sox the catching insurance needed in 1975. In 1974 Tim was rushed up from triple A when "Pudge" Fisk shattered his knee and he did a creditable job. He is facing a strong challenge from Andy Merchant to keep his number three receiver job in 1976.

At Crawford High in San Diego, he was MVP in baseball and football before being drafted in the 13th round in June, 1970 by the Red Sox as a third baseman. Earlier he pitched, caught and played the outfield in Little League and other youth baseball. He attends Grossmont JC in the off-season.

BOMBACK, Mark Vincent (Bomber)

PITCHER

Age: 22, Turns 23 Apr. 14; Born: April 14, 1953, Portsmouth, Va. Ht.: 5'11"; Wt.: 180 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Fall River, Mass. Signed by Scout Lefty LeFebvre, June 21, 1971. Married Susan E. Mourra. Children: Mark Boetius 3/12/73.

Mark has been knocking on the door of the major leagues for the past couple of seasons and may have found himself with a 12-6 record at Bristol, after a disappointing start in Pawtucket. He was one of the main reasons Bristol won the second half title in the Eastern League and his 12 victories led the staff.

He played on championship teams in Little League and sandlot baseball before pitching Durfee High of Fall River to the Massachusetts State Title in 1971. That June he was drafted in the 25th round and signed with the Sox.

BURLESON, Richard Paul (Rick)

SHORTSTOP

Age: 24, Turns 25 Apr. 29; Born: April 29, 1951, Lynwood, Calif. Ht.: 5'10"; Wt.: 165 lbs. Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Acton, Mass. Signed by Scout Joe Stephenson, Feb. 2, 1970. Married Karen Crofoot.

Rick was the Red Sox "Indispensable Man" of 1975 and justifiably named the club's "Unsung Hero" by the Boston baseball writers. He missed only 36 innings all year, including the final meaningless regular season game with Cleveland. Rick combined with both Griffin and Doyle at second base to give the Red Sox their best infield defensive combination in many years and also finished third on the team with 62 RBI.

Rick continued his clutch play in post-season games with a .444 average in the A. L. Championship Series and .292 in the World Series. He struck out just 44 times in 580 at bats and was second with 10 game-winning RBI.

He was the shortstop for the Connie Mack World Champions of 1969 and two school champions at Warren High of Downey, Calif. He signed after the Red Sox made him their number one secondary selection in the winter draft of 1970.

BURTON, Jim Scott (Eric)

PITCHER

Age: 26; Born: October 27, 1949, Royal Oak, Mich. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 198 lbs. Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats: Right; Throws: Left. Home: Rochester, Mich. Signed by Scout Maurice DeLoof, June 12, 1971. Single.

After an 8-2 start at Pawtucket, including a no-hitter, Jim was called to the Red Sox last June 9 to stay. As a starter he had one fine outing against Detroit, but spent the rest of the season as the left-handed long reliever. He had two relief appearances against Cincinnati in the World Series and was tagged with the loss in the seventh game, when he made a good pitch to Joe Morgan with two outs in the ninth that Morgan blooped into centerfield to drive in the winning run.

Jim was the Red Sox number one selection in the secondary phase of the June draft in 1971 after graduating from the University of Michigan. Previously he pitched on championship teams at every level of youth baseball and was the MVP of the 1969 Johnstown, Pa. tournament when his Detroit Federation team won the title. He also earned three letters each in football and basketball at Rochester, Mich. High. He pitched this winter with Arecibo in Puerto Rico.

CARBO, Bernardo (Bernie)

OUTFIELDER

Age: 28, Turns 29 Aug. 5; Born: August 5, 1947, Detroit, Mich. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 185 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats: Left; Throws: Right. Home: Allen Park, Mich. Married Susan Phillips. Children: Tracy Ann 7/19/73, Mandy 4/12/75.

For the second year in a row with the Red Sox Bernie had a great start and tailed off the final two months. But he came through with two dramatic pinch hit home runs in the Series, especially his eighth inning three run blast in the sixth game that tied the score and set the stage for 12th inning heroics by Carlton Fisk.

He again showed he likes Fenway Park, with a .306 average at home vs. a .201 average away, and he cut down on his strikeouts and increased his walks. As he proved in the Series, he gives the Red Sox extra outfield and pinch hitting protection. He led the team with a .412 on-base average.

He was Cincinnati's number one draft pick, ahead of Johnny Bench in 1965, and was the N. L. "Rookie of the Year" in 1970. He was an All State choice in baseball at Lavonia Franklin High in Michigan, as well as a football and basketball star.

CLEVELAND, Reginald Leslie (Reggie)

PITCHER

Age: 27, Turns 28 May 23; Born: May 23, 1948, Swift Current, Sask., Canada. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 205 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: St. Petersburg, Fla. Married Kathleen Kubicki. Children: Michelle Annette 5/27/69, Michael David 9/3/70.

Reggie's victories came when they were most needed in 1975 . . . he was 9-3 after July 6 and 4-0 in September, including a five-hit 4-0 shutout over Cleveland September 26, his only whitewash of the year. He started vs. Oakland in the Championship Series with no decision and lost 6-2 to the Reds in the fifth game of the World Series.

He first attracted baseball scouts when he pitched a no-hitter for the Moose Jaw Babe Ruth League Phillies in 1961. He signed with the Cardinals in 1966 after being selected athlete of the year at Beaver River High School in Cold Lake, Alberta, Canada, where he was a curling star and a champion javelin thrower. In 1971 he was the N. L. "Rookie Pitcher of the Year."

COOPER, Cecil Celester (Flash)

FIRST BASEMAN

Age: 26; Born: December 20, 1949, Brenham, Texas. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 175 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Brenham, Texas. Signed by Scout Dave Philley, June 14, 1968. Married Octavia Scranton.

Once he became a regular on June 24, 1975 Cecil again became the .300 hitter he had been throughout his minor league career. His offensive production became a key factor in the Red Sox drive for the pennant.

He led the league's designated hitters with a .318 average, hit .333 as a pinch hitter and played 35 games at first base. After Jim Rice was hurt, and Yaz returned to left field for the Championship and World Series, Cecil hit .400 vs. Oakland but Cincinnati's pitching staff cooled him off.

Cecil was voted the "Most Improved" player by the Boston writers for his 1975 contributions. He was an All Star in Little League and Pony League, and a member of two state championship high school teams, before he was selected in the sixth round of the 1968 June draft by the Red Sox. He attended Blinn JC and Prairie View A & M in recent off-seasons, but played this year for Escogido in the Dominican Republic.

COX, William Ted (Ted)

THIRD BASEMAN

Age: 21; Born: January 24, 1955, Oklahoma City, Okla. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 195 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Midwest City, Okla. Signed by Scout Danny Doyle, June 8, 1973. Married Deborah Lynn Pulliam.

The Red Sox number one June selection in 1973, ahead of Fred Lynn, Ted is making his first major league spring training trip, after leading the Carolina League in hits with 154 and average at .305. A shortstop in youth and high school baseball, he was converted to third base by the Red Sox and with a little more experience he'll be a long time major leaguer. A leg injury curtailed his activity late in 1975 and in the Florida Instructional League. He was an All State choice at shortstop for Midwest City High in Oklahoma.

Age: 25; Born: February 8, 1951, Memphis, Tenn. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 180 lbs. Blue eyes, Blond hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Saltillo, Miss. Signed by Scout Milt Bolling, June 30, 1972. Married Mary Jane Young.

Many experts feel Steve would have some major league experience behind him if it hadn't been for arm problems which have bothered his throwing from shortstop. He was operated on in the winter of 1974 and had to undergo mild surgery again early last year. By season's end he was throwing well from second base with Bristol and continued to improve in the Instructional League. A superior base runner and an aggressive hitter, who can really "pick it" in the infield.

Steve was the Red Sox number two selection in the June, 1972 draft, after making the All College World Series team with the District Three champions, the University of Mississippi. Earlier he won 16 letters at Saltillo High — five in baseball, four each in basketball and track and three in football.

DOYLE, Robert Dennis (Denny)

SECOND BASEMAN

Age: 32; Born: January 17, 1944, Louisville, Ky. Ht.: 5'10"; Wt.: 165 lbs. Green eyes, Blond hair. Bats: Left; Throws: Right. Home: Laurel Springs, N. J. Married Martha Carol Smith. Children: Melynn Carol 7/18/65, Robin Denise 12/22/67, Marci Renee 8/20/71.

Denny was one of the most valuable acquisitions in Red Sox history, as he helped to spark the pennant drive after coming from the Angels on June 13. Up to that date he had only one hit in 15 AB's . . . in his first two games in K. C., he came through with a game saving play in one and hit a game winning home run in the other. Later he compiled a 22 game batting streak, tops in the A. L. in 1975 and best for the Red Sox in some time. In the World Series he was the only player on either team to hit safely in all seven games.

He signed with the Phillies after graduation from Morehead State in 1965, where he starred in baseball and basketball. Later he was an Eastern League All Star in 1968 and MVP and "Rookie of the Year" in the Pacific Coast League with Eugene in 1969. It was the arrival of young Gerry Remy of Fall River, Mass., as the Angels second baseman, which made Denny available to the Red Sox. Denny's twin brothers, Blake and Brian, are with the Baltimore and Texas farm systems respectively.

DRAGO, Richard Anthony (Dick)

PITCHER

Age: 30, Turns 31 June 25; Born: June 25, 1945, Toledo, Ohio. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 200 lbs. Hazel eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Land O'Lakes, Fla. Married Victoria Mann. Children: Darren 10/11/70, Diana Michelle 5/2/75.

Dick proved in the last two months of the 1975 season that he ranks with the best relievers in the game . . . from August 27 on, he had eight of his 15 saves and one of his two wins in only 13 appearances. He went on to save two games vs. Oakland in the Championship Series and relieved twice in the World Series. He was a hard luck loser in Game #2 and pitched three shutout innings to help win historic Game #6. Officially, he ranked fifth among the American League relievers in 1975.

He originally signed with the Tigers after a great career at Woodward High in his native Toledo, Ohio, and then was selected by K. C. in the expansion draft of 1968. In 1971 he won 17 games and was Royal "Pitcher of the Year."

EVANS, Dwight Michael (Dewey)

OUTFIELDER

Age: 24; Born: November 3, 1951, Santa Monica, Calif. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 215 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Chatsworth, Calif. Signed by Scout Joe Stephenson, June 15, 1969. Married Susan Ann Severson. Children: Timothy Scott 2/14/73, Kirstin Ann 11/30/75.

He was singled out by "Sparky" Anderson as the "surprise package on the Red Sox and a great future star" in World Series press conferences. He came through with a game-tying 9th inning home run in Game #3, a key two-run triple in Game #4 and a great, game-saving catch in Game #6.

"Dewey" had a solid second half after being hampered with hamstring and shoulder injuries in the early part of the season. He jumped his average 50 points from mid-July on and continued as one of the top right fielders in the game with 15 assists and a league leading eight double plays.

The Red Sox selected him on the 5th round of the June, 1969 draft, after he was an All League third baseman and MVP at Chatsworth High. Earlier he was an All Star selection as a pitcher and third baseman in Little League, Colt and Pony League championship teams in Northridge, California.

DENNY DOYLE led the team in clutch hitting (7th inning on) with a .391 average. He did not hit into a double play the last 55 games of the regular season plus 10 more in post-season games. He hit safely in 14 of the last 15 regular season games for a .429 average (24-56).

FISK, Carlton Ernest (Pudge)

CATCHER

Age: 28; Born: December 26, 1947, Bellows Falls, Vt. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 220 lbs. Hazel eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Raymond, N. H. Signed Feb. 3, 1967, by Scout Jack Burns, after being Red Sox number one selection in winter draft. Married Linda Lee Foust. Children: Carlyn 9/26/70, Carson 2/20/72.

"Pudge's" dramatic 12th inning game winning home run in historic Game #6 of the 1975 World Series had to be some consolation for the miseries he encountered during 1974 and early 1975. He missed the first 17 games of 1974 after a serious groin injury in the spring, and then had his knee shattered in a collision in Cleveland in June that ended his season. Then, while trying to recover from knee surgery in spring training of 1975, he suffered a broken right arm, which kept him out of the first 63 games of the season. In August he missed seven more with a split finger.

What a finish he had, and what a factor he was in the pennant drive!! His RBI production for times at bat programs out to a 100 plus season and in the September stretch drive he hit .371 with 18 RBI and 10 extra base hits. He hit .417 in the Championship Series and he also homered in World Series Game #3. In 1972 he was a unanimous pick as "Rookie of the Year" and in 1973 was a top vote getter as the All Star catcher.

"Pudge" has had that nickname since childhood. He became the Red Sox number one selection in the 1967 winter draft after starring in baseball, basketball and soccer at Charlestown High in N. H., and briefly attending the Univ. of New Hampshire.

GRIFFIN, Douglas Lee, Jr. (Dude)

SECOND BASEMAN

Age: 28, Turns 29 June 4; Born: June 4, 1947, South Gate, Calif. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 165 lbs. Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Peabody, Mass. Married Nancy Lynn Harp. Children: Natalie 3/16/69, Chad Douglas 1/24/71.

He was used sparingly after Doyle came over from the Angels, but in one stretch in July when the Red Sox moved into first place to stay, Doug was 7 for 9 as a pinch hitter in clutch situations.

During each of the previous four seasons with the Red Sox Doug was disabled for long spells with injuries, and prior to the 1975 season was operated on successfully to correct a herniated disc condition in his back. When he has been healthy he has been a sensational fielder.

He preceded Fred Lynn at El Monte High by a couple of years as MVP, and originally signed with the Angels. Later he played for the Navy team, based on Hawaii, which finished second in the National Baseball Congress tournament at Wichita.

"Butch" is knocking at the door of the major leagues and coaches and minor league managers believe he's ready if anything should happen to Rico Petrocelli at third base. After a solid season with Bristol of the Eastern League he impressed even more with the Florida Instructional team.

This is his first official trip to the major league camp after being promoted to the Red Sox roster last September. He chose baseball over football when the Red Sox made him their eighth pick in the draft of June, 1973. At Alabama he set a new Southeastern Conference home run record, and was an American Legion and Bessemer High School MVP.

HOUSE, Thomas Ross (Tom)

PITCHER

Age: 28, Turns 29 Apr. 29; Born: April 29, 1947, Seattle, Wash. Ht.: 5'10"; Wt.: 180 lbs. Brown eyes, Blond hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Coronado, Calif. Married Karen Helen Zwimpfer. Children: Brittany Lin 2/16/69, Brooke Amy 11/25/73.

Although he was the mainstay in the Atlanta bullpen the past two years with 13 wins and 22 saves, Tom's biggest thrill to date was catching Henry Aaron's 715th home run in the Atlanta bullpen, April 8, 1974. He credits that opportunity to become a small part of sports history as giving him a new outlook at his baseball career. His performances since bear him out. The Red Sox expect him to be the solid left handed short reliever the club lacked in 1975.

He was a teammate of Bill Lee's at USC when he was drafted by the Braves in June, 1967 and signed. He earned both his Bachelor of Science and Master of Bus. Admin. degrees at USC. From Little League days in Portland, Ore., through Pony League and Legion baseball in La Puente, Calif., and at Nogales High, he was an All Star pitcher. In 1966 he helped pitch the Alaska Gold Panners to the World Amateur Championship.

He has appeared as an extra in several movies, including "The Graduate", and also appeared in several episodes of "Hogan's Heroes" and "Rat Patrol" on TV.

JENKINS, Ferguson Arthur (Fergie)

PITCHER

Age: 32; Born: December 13, 1943, Chatham, Ontario, Canada. Ht.: 6'5"; Wt.: 210 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Blenheim, Ont., Canada. Married Ann Katherine Williams. Children: Kelly 2/12/70, Delores 3/27/71.

His acquisition last November became the main topic for Red Sox fans eagerly waiting for him to join the starting rotation. Only Jim Kaat and Gaylord Perry, both 37, and Mickey Lolich, 35, have more career wins than 32-year-old Fergie's 191, among active pitchers. With 183 wins in the last nine seasons he is the winningest active hurler, ahead of "Catfish" Hunter.

He was only 17 when he gave up junior "B" hockey in Canada, graduated from McGregor H.S. and signed with Philadelphia. He says if he had stayed with hockey he would probably spend too much time in the penalty box because he always led in penalties. Through the years he has won most major pitching awards, Cy Young Winner in 1971, N. L. Pitcher of the Year in 1967 and 1971, and the A. L. "Comeback Player of the Year" in 1974 with Texas.

With a better defensive team behind him Red Sox fans hope Fergie will realize a lifetime ambition in 1976, the chance to pitch in his first World Series.

JOHNSON, Deron Roger ("D")

DESIGNATED HITTER

Age: 37, Turns 38 July 17; Born: July 17, 1938, San Diego, Calif. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 212 lbs. Blue eyes, Blond hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Poway, Calif. Married Lucia Ann DeMaria. Children: Deron 11, Dominick 7, Anthony 2.

Deron had an excellent spring training campaign as a special invitee a year ago but when it looked like Tony Conigliaro had made a successful comeback he elected to sign with the White Sox for the 1975 season. The Red Sox re-acquired him in late September, after Jim Rice was sidelined, but he was ineligible for both the Championship and World Series. He showed enough last year to indicate he can be an excellent backup man at first base and valuable as a designated hitter.

He was signed originally by the Yankees after starring in high school in San Diego. The Red Sox are the ninth major league team he has played for in a 15 year career.

JONES, Thomas Fredrick (Rick)

PITCHER

Age: 20, Turns 21 Apr. 16; Born: April 16, 1955, Jacksonville, Fla. Ht.: 6'5"; Wt.: 195 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Jacksonville, Fla. Signed by Scout George Digby, June 10, 1973. Single.

As the Red Sox fifth selection in June draft of 1973, Rick was recognized as a youngster with major league potential, and he showed promise in 1973 and 1974. In 1975 he exploded to become the Carolina League "Pitcher of the Year" with a 13-3 record, before being promoted to Bristol of the Eastern League, where he fashioned a 7-4 mark and helped them win the second half title. Then it was on to the Instructional League for a 4-1 record with an ERA of 0.60. His success is attributed to very good control of a sneaky fast ball and a good curve, plus an exceptional change-up pitch.

In his native Jacksonville he played first base and pitched on his way up the youth baseball ladder on a succession of championship and All Star teams in Little League, Senior Little League and American Legion, finishing as MVP on the champion Forrest High team, where he also starred in basketball. His brother, Ken, was drafted by Washington in 1965 and his father once played minor league baseball. It will take only a little more AAA experience to bring him to Fenway Park to stay.

LEE, William Francis (Bill)

PITCHER

Age: 29; Born: December 28, 1946, Burbank, Calif. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 210 lbs. Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Stoughton, Mass. Signed by Scout Joe Stephenson, June 25, 1968. Married Mary Lou Helfrich. Children: Michael 7/16/70, Andrew 8/25/74.

Bill's bid for a 20 win season for the third year in a row was stymied at 17. He won his 17th, and last, game on August 24, but couldn't do anything in five additional starts and three relief appearances. From May 1 through August 24, however, he was one of the best pitchers in baseball with a 16-4 record, and twice was named the A. L. Player of the Week. He had two no-decision starts vs. the Reds in the World Series. For the second year in a row he led the league in pickoffs with 11, to go with 15 in 1974.

Still an outspoken young man on any and all subjects, he spent a good deal of his spare off-season time this winter helping many worthwhile community causes in Greater Boston and visited China with a group of educators in January, exhibiting a more serious side than his nickname of "Spaceman" would indicate.

He is the Red Sox official player representative, and signed with the Sox after being picked on the 22nd round of the 1968 June draft. At Southern California he had a four year 38-8 record and two wins in two days in the 1968 College World Series.

LYNN, Fredric Michael (Fred)

OUTFIELDER

Age: 24; Born: February 3, 1952, Chicago, Ill. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 190 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: El Monte, Calif. Signed by Scout Joe Stephenson, July 9, 1973. Married Diane May Minkle.

Listed on the next page are the 13 major awards which Fred earned in 1975, but even they don't completely show the suddenness with which the name of Fred Lynn burst into the national spotlight last year. Although he had been labeled as a "can't miss" prospect when he came to his first major league spring training camp last spring, even the most optimistic observers couldn't foresee the sensational season he would have in every department of the game.

He went hitless the first two games of the season but by Game #4 he had climbed over the .300 mark and never dropped below that level all season. It was the night of June 18, in Tiger Stadium in Detroit, when baseball fans all over the country suddenly became very conscious of the young Red Sox center fielder. On that night, Fred had three home runs, a triple and a single with 10 RBI and a record tying 16 total bases. Even more important, that performance sparked the rest of the club and the pennant express got rolling.

He batted .364 in the Championship Series and .280 in the World Series with a big three run homer in Game #6, the first Series homer for a rookie since 1967, and continued the sensational fielding he had demonstrated all year.

He was the Red Sox second selection in the 1973 June draft, after being a regular on three Southern California NCAA champions under Rod Dedeaux and All America in 1972 and 1973. In 1972, he led the nation's collegians with 14 home runs and was voted MVP when the U. S. All Stars played in Japan. Earlier he starred in Little League, Pony League and high school in El Monte, with several batting titles, and picked up five letters in football and basketball. In fact, he went to USC on a football scholarship, and was a freshman teammate of Lynn Swann, hero of the 1976 Super Bowl for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

MERCHANT, James Anderson (Andy)

CATCHER

Andy appears about ready to don a major league uniform for keeps, after another solid season, this time at the triple A level, and he'll bid for the number three catching job in 1976.

He was selected by the Red Sox in the 10th round of the 1972 June draft after winning the Southeast Conference batting title with a .400 average at Auburn University. At Murphy High of Mobile, Ala. he was All State and MVP in 1968, and later at Auburn, was a member of the U. S. team in the 1971 Pan Am Games.

MILLER, Richard Alan (Rick)

OUTFIELDER

Age: 27, Turns 28 Apr. 19; Born: April 19, 1948, Grand Rapids, Mich. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 180 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Charlestown, N. H. Signed by Scout Maurice DeLoof, June 19, 1969. Married Janet Marie Fisk.

Even though he is only 27 years old, and definitely one of the best defensive outfielders in the game, Rick was a 1975 casualty to the arrival of the so-called Gold Dust Twins, Lynn and Rice, and saw the least activity of his four major league seasons. To keep from getting rusty, he played this winter for Estralles in the Dominican Republic.

Although he started only 21 games he played all over the outfield as a late game defensive replacement and appeared in several games as a pinch-hitter or a pinch-runner. His 21 hits for the year included clutch hits in key games — vs. Baltimore, a ninth inning game tying single in late June which preceded a 12 inning 4-3 Boston win, and vs. New York and "Catfish" Hunter, a two out game winning 1-0 single in the 9th on July 27.

Rick was the Red Sox second pick in June of 1969 after he won the Big Ten batting title at Michigan State and made All America. He was a three sport star at Union High in Grand Rapids. In 1974 he was picked as Red Sox "Man of the Year" by the BoSox Club for community cooperation.

MONTGOMERY, Robert Edward (Monty)

CATCHER

Age: 31, Turns 32 Apr. 16; Born: April 16, 1944, Nashville, Tenn. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 210 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Dedham, Mass. Signed by Scout George Digby, June 9, 1962. Single.

"Monty" did most of the early catching in 1975 before Fisk returned to the lineup in mid-June, and up till mid-May he was one of the best clutch hitters on the club with 18 RBI and four of the first eleven game winning RBI. This has been the backup role which he has filled so well in five full seasons in Boston.

He had never been a catcher until he signed with the Red Sox in 1962, and then climbed steadily through the farm system and arrived to stay in late 1970. At Central High of Nashville he was a pitcher, outfielder and first baseman. He played six games at first in 1975. A former BoSox Club selection as "Man of the Year", he is an accomplished golfer, a model train expert and sells scorecard and message board advertising in the off-season for the Red Sox.

PETROCELLI, Americo Peter (Rico)

THIRD BASEMAN

Age: 32, Turns 33 June 27; Born: June 27, 1943, Brooklyn, N. Y. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 200 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Lynnfield, Mass. Signed by Scout "Bots" Nekola, July 2, 1961. Married Elsie Jensen. Children: Michael 2/7/66, Jimmy and Billy 6/7/67, Danny 8/5/69.

Probably the best news Red Sox fans received all winter was that Rico's ear problems had been corrected and he was cleared for action in 1976, his 12th season with the club. Four times, for a total of 40 games, he was sidelined by injuries last year, the most disturbing for him and for the Red Sox, a stretch of 15 games in late August, when it appeared that inner ear problems might be cutting his career short.

Helped by medication, he returned to action, had some clutch hits in key games in September and fielded sensationally throughout the Championship and the World Series, and batted .308 in the World Series.

For 11 years, Rico has been a Red Sox infield mainstay, first at short and since 1971 at third base. He lost the last six weeks of the 1973 season because of elbow problems, but earned the "Comeback of the Year" award from the Boston writers in 1974 after a corrective elbow operation. Back in 1969, his 40 home runs as a short-stop set an A. L. record which still stands.

Before signing he was a star in both baseball and basketball at Sheepshead Bay high school.

POLE, Richard Henry (Dick)

PITCHER

Age: 25; Born: October 13, 1950, Trout Creek, Mich. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 215 lbs. Hazel eyes, Red hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Trout Creek, Mich. Signed by Scout Maurice DeLoof, Aug. 3, 1968. Married Carol Scott.

Dick made it to stay finally in 1975, and once in the starting rotation was pitching well until he was felled by a Tony Muser line drive which broke his right cheek bone on June 30, as he was beating Jim Palmer. He missed the months of July and August, returned in September and came through with a big win over Baltimore on September 4. This winter, he was a winner for Escogido in the Dominican Republic and shows no ill effects from last year's injury.

He was a free agent after graduating from Trout Creek High, where he was better known for his basketball prowess, when he signed with the Red Sox. In 1973, he was picked as the Most Valuable Pitcher in the International League.

RICE, James Edward (Jim)

OUTFIELDER

Age: 22, Turns 23 Mar. 8; Born: March 8, 1953, Anderson, S. C. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 212 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Anderson, S. C. Signed by Scout Mace Brown, June 10, 1971. Married Corine Gillard.

In any other year but 1975, Jim would have been an easy selection as American League "Rookie of the Year", and at one point last season there was sentiment that he and Fred Lynn should be voted as a tandem.

Henry Aaron has already cited Jim as one young player with a chance to surpass his all-time home run record. He demonstrated last year that he is one of the strongest hitters to come up in some time. Rice started the season as a DH but worked hard on his fielding and became the regular left fielder on July 2. He did not make an error in 90 games in that position.

He improved month by month during the season, but suffered a broken left hand on September 21 when hit by a Vernon Ruhle pitch in Detroit. Jim missed the last five games of the season and the playoffs and World Series. He'll be ready again for 1976, however, as part of one of the best young outfields in baseball with Lynn and Evans.

Jim was the Red Sox number one selection in June, 1971, after winning 10 letters in baseball, football, basketball and track for Westside and Hanna High Schools in Anderson, S.C. In the Red Sox system, he was an All Star in the Florida State League in 1972, in the Eastern League in 1973, and was the "Minor League Player of the Year" in 1974, when he led the International League in hitting, home runs and RBI.

This will be a very important spring for Chuck as he returns for another shot at making the major league club. In 1975, for the second year in a row, he started with Pawtucket but was ineffective and finished the season with Bristol of the Eastern League where he helped pitch that club to the second half title.

He was the Red Sox fourth selection in the 1970 June draft, after graduating from Woodrow Wilson High of San Diego, which has produced several major leaguers. He has two minor league no-hitters to his credit, with Pawtucket in 1974 and with Bristol in 1973.

SEGUI, Diego Pablo (Diego)

PITCHER

Age: 37, Turns 38 Aug. 17; Born: August 17, 1938, Holquin, Oriente, Cuba. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 192 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Kansas City, Kan. Married Emilie. Children: Diego Jr. 4/26/65, David 7/19/66, Daniel 8/22/67, Diana 12/13/73.

He saw very little action from mid-July on, as both Willoughby and Drago became the prime right-handed relievers. Diego spent the winter in Venezuela, pitching for Portuguesa. He was trying to regain the effectiveness he had shown with St. Louis in 1972 and 1973, because he faces a stiff challenge this spring from some fine young arms.

Diego originally was the property of the Cincinnati Reds, after attending Buena-venture School in his native Cuba, but was released in 1958 and before the season was over was purchased by the Kansas City Athletics. His brother, Dario, also pitched in the then-Kansas City A's system.

Age: 24; Born: October 30, 1951, San Antonio, Tex. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 200 lbs. Green eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: San Antonio, Tex. Signed by Scout Dave Philley, June 12, 1970. Single.

Gerry has earned his first trip to the Red Sox major league camp after a steady step-by-step climb through the farm system, and is now rated as having a major league future. He pitched this winter for Guasave in the Mexican League.

He was the Sox seventh round selection in the 1970 June draft after starring as a pitcher and a shortstop with East Central in his native San Antonio, where he was a Little League and Pony League All Star.

TIANT, Luis Clemente (Luis)

PITCHER

Age: 35; Born: November 23, 1940, Havana, Cuba. Ht.: 5'11"; Wt.: 205 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Milton, Mass. Married Maria Del Refugio Navarro. Children: Luis 9/5/62, Isabel 10/14/67, Daniel Alfredo 7/21/74.

"Loueee, Loueee, Loueee" was the chant that became a rallying cry for Red Sox fans last year. And how the veteran Cuban performed down the stretch! He had back problems in August, but came through with a 3-1 record in September, with two shutouts and a 1.47 ERA in 30.2 innings.

He followed that with a 7-1 (unearned run) win over Oakland in the Championship Series and beat Cincinnati twice in three starts in the Series. If Luis needed inspirational help, he got it on the night of August 26. In a truly dramatic moment Luis' father, Luis, Sr., a pitching star for the New York Cubans of yesteryear, threw the first ball from the mound. He and Luis' mother had been allowed to come to the States with special permission of Cuba and the U. S. State Department, and on that night Luis, Sr. saw his son pitch a major league game in person for the first time.

Tiant was voted the Babe Ruth Award by the N. Y. Baseball Writers as the outstanding performer in the Series, and for the third straight year was selected by the Boston writers as the Red Sox Most Valuable Pitcher.

Five years ago he was released by Minnesota and Atlanta. He caught on with Louisville on manager Darrell Johnson's recommendation and came to Boston to stay. In the last four years he has fashioned one of the better pitching records in the game, 75-46, and wants another chance to win a World Series in 1976.

WILLOUGHBY, James Arthur (Jim)

PITCHER

Age: 27; Born: January 31, 1949, Salinas, Calif. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 205 lbs. Hazel eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Modesto, Calif. Married Mary Ann Ryan. Children: Trevor 8/17/71.

Jim has to be regarded as one of the best mid-season acquisitions ever by the Red Sox. Obtained on July 4 as a follow up to the Mario Guerrero deal to the Cardinals, he had a bad first outing for the Red Sox on July 6. In the next 15 games he had eight saves and four wins, as his sidearm delivery and sinking fast ball were a mystery to rival hitters. One way or another, he appeared in 14 winning games for the Red Sox, and although he was the official loser in Game #3, after the controversial "interference" call at home plate, he pitched very well against Cincinnati.

He signed originally with the Giants after pitching and playing the outfield in Little League, Babe Ruth League, American Legion and starring in four sports at Union High in Gustine, Calif.

Jim has continued his education at Phoenix College, California State at Fresno and Univ. of California, Berkeley, where he is a candidate for a degree in electrical engineering. He is also regarded as one of the finest chess players in the A.L.

WISE, Richard Charles (Rick)

PITCHER

Age: 30, Turns 31 Sept. 13; Born: September 13, 1945, Jackson, Mich. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 208 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Chesterfield, Mo. Married Susan Lakey. Children: Stacey 9/16/68, Richard Jr. 8/17/70.

Rick earned the "Comeback of the Year" award from the Boston Baseball Writers as he became the top winner for the Red Sox in 1975 with 19 victories, after only three wins in an injury ridden 1974 season. He won the final game of the Championship Series from Oakland, but the home run ball which had given him trouble during the season plagued him in Game #3 of the World Series and he had no decision. But he did have a scoreless inning of relief to get the win in historic Game #6.

He was at his best through the months of June, July and August, with a 14-4 record, but finished with a disappointing September. He came within one out of a no-hit game against Milwaukee on July 2 at County Stadium, but gave up a home run to George Scott to spoil his bid. In 1971 he had a no-hitter against Cincinnati in Riverfront Stadium when he hit two home runs himself.

Before signing with the Phillies in 1963 he was All City in football, basketball and baseball at Madison High of Portland, Ore. Earlier he pitched for Little League and Babe Ruth League championship teams in Oregon.

WRIGHT, James Clifton (Jim)

PITCHER

Age 25; Born: December 21, 1950, Reed City, Mich. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 165 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Coopersville, Mich. Signed by Scout Maurice DeLoof, June 14, 1969. Married Laura Rae Crouse.

Jim had a fine start with Bristol in 1975 and was promoted to Pawtucket, where he pitched well enough to win several games but he was the victim of poor support offensively and defensively. Many observers believe that, after Don Aase and Rick Jones, Jim might be the next best prospect.

He was chosen by the Red Sox in the fourth round of the 1969 June draft after being voted the MVP at Coopersville Senior High in Michigan, where he won four letters as an end in football and starred in Little League and Pony League baseball.

DID YOU KNOW?

LUIS TIANT was 11-6 in Fenway Park in 1975. Since joining the RED SOX in mid-1971 he has a 46-20 record in Fenway and an overall career record of 53-24 there. He was 10-1 in Fenway in 1972.

DID YOU KNOW?

The RED SOX led the majors in 1975 in batting, .275, and the A.L. in runs, 796, hits, 1500, TB, 2274, doubles, 284, and slugging, .417. It was the first batting title for the SOX since 1967 and their best average since 1956. Also, it was the 5th time in 6 years and 25th overall that they led in doubles (their best total since 1950), and the 4th time in 6 years and 15th overall they've led in slugging.

YASTRZEMSKI, Carl Michael (Yaz)

FIRST BASEMAN

Age: 36, Turns 37 Aug. 22; Born: August 22, 1939, Southampton, L. I., N. Y. Ht.: 5'11"; Wt.: 185 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats: Left; Throws: Right. Home: Light House Pt., Fla. Signed by Scout "Bots" Nekola, Nov. 28, 1958. Married Carolann Casper. Children: Mary Ann 9/21/60, C. Michael Jr. 8/16/61, Suzann 6/15/66, Carolyn 4/15/69.

Although a study of Yaz' season statistics for 1975 indicates a drop-off in a few offensive categories, another look at his figures for the Championship and World Series will show how he rebounded. What they won't show, however, is that against Oakland in particular, Carl was once again the inspirational leader who took his club to the pennant in 1967. He did it all . . . clutch hits, great catches, great throws, to lead the three game sweep over the A's, and then was the leading Red Sox hitter in the World Series.

He started to come on in mid-May after a slow start, and by mid-July was in a good hitting groove. A shoulder injury in early August gave him trouble the rest of the way, until his post-season splurge. With the arrival of Jim Rice, Carl played the entire last half of the season at first base, but when Rice was sidelined for post-season play, he returned to left field and showed he hadn't lost the touch which won six Gold Gloves.

As he enters his 16th major league season with the Red Sox, he has the distinction of having more longevity with the club than any other home-grown player. The key to that statement is "home-grown," because Ted Williams had 19 seasons with the Red Sox, but he was originally obtained through a trade, while Yaz signed off the campus of Notre Dame in 1959 as a shortstop. He later obtained his degree at Merrimac College.

DID YOU KNOW?

FRED LYNN was the first rookie to win a slugging title since Pete Browning of Louisville led the American Association in 1882. That was the first year of the then-major league A.A. LYNN had a .566 percentage to win over K.C.'s John Mayberry, .547. He also set a new A.L. rookie record for doubles with 47, to break the mark of 45 held by Roy Johnson, 1929 Tigers, and Hal Trosky, 1934 Indians.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE — A BRIEF SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs meet twice a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent . . . The winter meeting is conducted by conference phone . . . Selection of a free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player for a specified period (from date of selection until 15 days prior to next draft meeting).

Approximate dates of draft meetings: Summer (approx. June 10) and Winter (approx. January 9, 1976) . . .

There are two phases to each draft meeting:

(1) Regular Phase — Clubs choose in inverse order of major league standings, selecting free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either completed his junior year or become 21 years of age . . . Each organization may select only one player for each of its major league, AAA and AA rosters but is not limited to the number of picks for "A" level . . . Minor league clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.

(2) Secondary Phase — Selection of free agents who had been drafted previously but who had not signed contracts before the negotiation right expired (except those draftees who had enrolled in a four-year college and had since graduated or become 21 years of age — now drafted in Regular Phase) . . . It is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it had been unable to sign after the original selection, but only with the express written consent of that player . . . The order of selection is by lot with the 24 major league clubs divided into two 12-team groups with the groups alternating having first selections in respective drafts.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: A game terminated by curfew or by a pre-arranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed far enough to be an official game (i.e. 4½ or 5 innings) . . .

A game terminated by light failure is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs on the same ground . . . If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in American League Regulation 3.8 . . .

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall now be considered a suspended game and will be resumed at the point of suspension.

TRADING REGULATIONS:

		In Effect:
Waiver Requirements		From Midnight —	To Midnight —
(Within Own League)
No Waivers Necessary	.. Last Day of Season	June 15
League Waivers June 15		Last Day of Season
(Inter-League)
No Waivers (inter-league trading period)	5 Days After End of	World Series	Last Business Day of Winter Meetings
League Waivers (assignor's league) Day following Winter Meetings	June 15
Major League Waivers	.. June 15		Last Day of Season
League Waivers (assignor's league)	.. Last Day of Season	4 Days After End of	World Series

BATTING/PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: 502 or more plate appearances. 162 or more innings.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE — A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: 1.) he is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; 2.) he is not the winning pitcher; and 3.) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a.) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b.) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (i.e., the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or c.) he pitched effectively for at least three innings.

PLAYER LIMITS — 25 players from opening day through August 31 . . . 40 players from September 1 through end of season . . . Players in military service do not count against the under control list while on active duty. Upon separation from the service, a player will be reinstated to his club's normal player limits after he has completed a 15-day trial period or has participated in a championship game, whichever comes first.

DEFINITION OF NIGHT GAME — Any game scheduled to start after 6 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6 p.m. and is delayed for any reason, it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6:01 p.m., it will be considered a night game. Two-night double-headers shall be included in double-header statistics and shall be considered two night games. When afternoon and night games (separate admissions) are played on the same date, the games shall be day and night and count as single games.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE — All night games must be called at 1 a.m. local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1 a.m. city time, it can be completed.
